

Easy Travel Tips for Travelling with your Dog

- Do your homework and reserve well ahead of time to ensure hassle-free accommodations.
- Pack a familiar blanket, bed and toy so your dog feels at home wherever he is.
- Bring food and treats from home to avoid any changes in diet that would upset your dog's tummy.
- If you are travelling out of Canada, IT IS VERY IMPORTANT to check that country's laws regarding dog food. For example, you cannot bring most dog foods across the US border and sometimes it can be difficult to locate your specific type of food. Currently, there is no problem bringing salmon dog food across. Do your homework!
- Vaccines – usually it is just rabies – but be sure to do your homework on this. If you have to get a rabies vaccine for your dog it usually has to be done much in advance of crossing the border to return home to Canada so do not leave to the last minute.
- Most hotels do not allow unattended dogs – and offer pet sitters (by arrangement) to assist you. If you have quiet dogs – you can simply put them in their crates that way they stay safe and comfortable.
- Make sure your dog has his collar with tags on at all times and it is a good idea to microchip before your trip.
